2. Units:

- a. The security battalion of the Commander-in-Chief is located in the so-called 1st Gorodok (camp).
- b. The AKHO (Administrative-Economic Section) is located in the Lutz barracks or so-called 2nd Gorodok.
- c. The KEU (a communal billeting organization) is located in the Stammlager or 3rd Gorodok. Also quartered here is one anti-aircraft artillery workshop.
- d. In addition to these, a motor pool is located in the Stammlager. It is responsible for civilian cars belonging to smaller units, and includes German drivers and mechanics belonging to shops run for the benefit of the Soviets. This pool is not to be confused with the motor transport company responsible for transport in the 1st Gorodok.
- e. There are the following additional units:
 - (1) The mechanized regiment in the new Zossen-Wuensdorf barracks.
 - (2) A unit which is either a tank regiment or a mechanized regiment in the Hindenburg barracks. This has been there for some time prior to the arrival of the mechanized regiment from Cottbus.
